

Daylesford Uniting Church

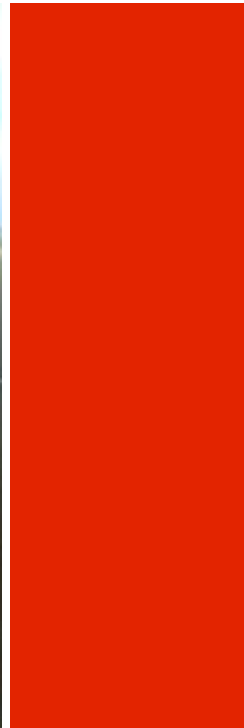

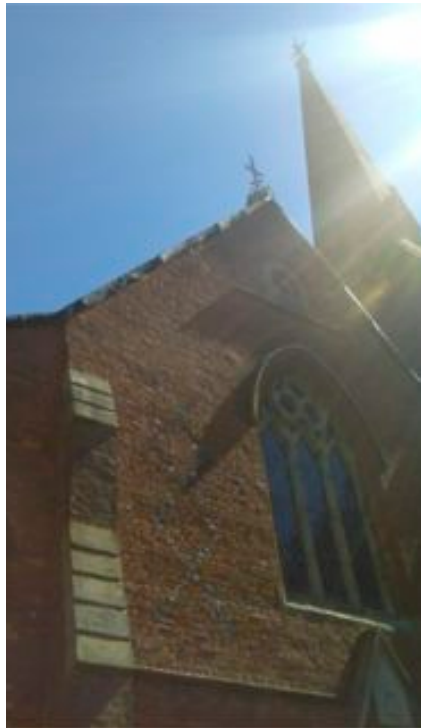

EMBRACING DIFFERENCE - SHARING THE HOSPITALITY OF JESUS

Who we are

The Daylesford Uniting Church congregation is a small but growing community of faith made up of a diverse range of people. Many views are held here, there is laughter and there is space for the questions.

If you have never been to church, not been to a church in a long time, if you are hungering to explore issues of faith and life, here you are welcome.

Worship 9:30am Sundays

Daylesford Uniting Church

56 Central Springs Rd Daylesford, T: 03 5348 2119 W: highlandclusteruca.org.au

Daylesford Uniting Church seeks to create open space for nourishment and healing in body, mind and soul.

Daylesford Uniting Church

Daylesford Uniting Church seeks to create open space for nourishment and healing in body, mind and soul through:

- ▶ Sharing generously over food
- ▶ Creating space to explore our spiritual journey
- ▶ Enjoying the arts and creating together

Daylesford Uniting Church

Shares generously over food

Through eating together and sharing in cuppas often in one another's homes, in cafes, after worship

Creating regular open café space: 'Mingle at the Mitchell' during the week

Exploring offering regular basic cooking groups for the community

Creates space to explore our spiritual journey

Through offering worship that provides room for questions and discussion

Facilitating open spirituality workshops

Offering Bible exploration groups that explore where faith and real life meet

Enjoys the arts and creating together

Through offering sessional craft groups for the community, open to all levels

Providing welcoming space for music: rehearsals and performance space

Celebrating the arts in worship and in our worship space

Here there is room for all - Space to explore where faith and real life meet